The Student Association Handbook and Directory for 1937-38 has been edited with a cover of new design and color. It is the belief of the editor that a new cover design should be used each year to give an originality and freshness to the Handbook, which must necessarily have the same copy.

The illustrations were made possible through the kindly cooperation of Julian Arlauskas and John Ananis. The cover is by Julian Arlauskas.

The editor wishes to express his appreciation of the assistance given by those students who willingly helped in the compilation of the copy. Appreciation is also expressed for the assistance given by Terry Clayton who is largly responsible for the complete and correct copy.

LORNE CRAIG,

Alma Mater

School of Art, thy sons and daughters
  Gathering now, from far and near,
Render thus with song of gladness
  Tribute to thy name most dear.
Hopeful! joyous! we assemble
  Seeking Truth as our reward.
Thou dost mark each hidden talent,
  Nurture well each gift of God.

Here 'mid sweet association
  We have sought to understand
Beauty's place in God's creation,
  Nature's choicest gift to man.
Errant brush and faltering pencil
  Trained, will lead to richer life;
Character, like clay, is moulded
  Only thus through wholesome strife.

Daughter, loved of State and Nation,
  May our faith in thee abide.
May thy noble inspiration
  Be for evermore our guide.
Till we bear thy precious story
  O'er our land from East to West
Consecrating to thy glory
  Heart and hand in Service blest.

M. S. A. Creed

I believe in Art as a great uplifting force to humanity and as a medium through which the finest human emotions are expressed. As a student of Art, I have faith in Art and in its universal appeal to mankind. I will try, in my study of Art, to spread a love for truth and beauty so that others may know and experience for themselves this creative force in their lives.

The artist, in order to achieve, must master not only his technique, but must also express order, harmony, and loyalty. These qualities I realize I must develop in my school years if I would be equipped for my life work.

This is my school. So that it may offer to all equal opportunity and freedom for creative work

I will keep its rules.

I will uphold its standards and support its policies.

I will promote and protect its ideals.

I will be loyal to my own talent and to the talents of my fellow students.

THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The present Student Association was organized in 1922 on a plan presented to the school by the principal, Mr. Royal B. Farnum. While it is not precisely a student government, the Association has many of the functions of such an organization and is an integral factor in student life. It is primarily an agency for the promotion and supervision of social life and extracurricular activities, and it has sole control of the financial affairs involved in student enterprises.

The political structure of the Association consists of two inter-related units; the Council of the whole, and the Advisory Board. The Council of the whole is the entire membership of the Association, which includes every student in the school. The legislative power is vested in this Council, and it must pass on all amendments to the Association's constitution and may make decisions on important questions affecting the policy of the Association. The executive power is possessed by the Advisory Board. This Board includes the Association officers, the class presidents, the heads of the various student organizations, and a faculty committee. It has the general direction of all student activities.

One of the most important duties of the Association is the administration of finances for the various school organizations. The funds received annually from the collection of membership fees is budgeted among the different classes and clubs. Each organization is credited with a specified sum and its expenses are paid from this amount by the Association treasurer as requested by the organization's treasurer. This method centralizes responsibility and simplifies business relations between school organizations and outside concerns.

Privileges of S. A. Membership

In return for your membership fee you are entitled to the following:

1. Copy of the Year Book.
2. Admission to the Smock Day dance.
3. Admission to the Christmas spread and dance.
4. Permission to enter Exhibition subject to rules.
5. Admission to the annual S. A. picnic.
6. Reduced rates at performances of the Mascart Theatre.
7. Reduced ticket prices at your own class dance.

A well-stocked supply store is maintained at the school where students and faculty may purchase art materials at reasonable prices. All business is conducted with the approval of the Board of Directors. Most of the profits are used as student aid loans and to provide cultural opportunities for the student body.

Glee CLUB

Although art extends back for thousands of years music is an older form of self-expression. It is considered the universal language of mankind, especially by the use of the voice; consequently, people gather together to sing. It is with this thought in mind that we have a Glee Club for the enjoyment of all who love to express themselves singing. Our freshmen have made an ambitious beginning, and we look forward to the time when they are Seniors, and our Glee Club has been established as a necessary part of our school activities.

CECILIA ROBICHAUD.

The ORCHESTRA

Dean Murray's genuine interest in music, the most personal and the most social of all the arts, has resulted in the formation of two school orchestras. Their artistic musical performances have added greatly to the enjoyment of many of the Assembly programs.

The students show their constant and growing enthusiasm for this activity by their willingness to give most generously of their time outside of school hours for rehearsals. Soon each class will have its own orchestra because our musicians are convincing all of the truth of Longfellow's lines when he wrote, "Yea, Music is the prophet's art; among the gifts that God hath sent, one of the most magnificent."

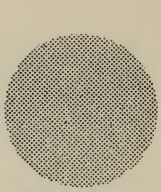
IRIS FEDERICO.

Every Thursday afternoon an ambitious group of magical aspirants meets with Mr. Hoadly in their between floors sanctum. Here they not only learn but also practice the intriguing science of prestidigitation.

MARY YOUNG.

The Sketch Club is an ardent group of students who meet regularly with Mr. Philbrick, amid much matting and thumb-tacking, for informal criticism and discussion of work done outside of regular studio assignments. Its popularity is proved easily by its overflow attendance and the school's open enthusiasm for both the Sketch Club bulletin displays and the annual exhibition in the Spring. A most vital factor to an art school, — it does not seem strange that it has become so successful in its still short history.

STUART HODGE.



BASKETBALL

The basketball team swings into action again for its fourth season. This is a comparatively new organization that has been improving each year.

Interclass games and games with other schools make up the schedule.

Whether you have played before or not, come out for the team, everyone is welcome.

Watch the bulletin boards for announcements.

VINCENT OSTRAND.

crafts guild

The Crafts Guild has attained a microscopic viewpoint on the fascination of handicrafts. Through its association, we hope that some member will find the professional or hobby road.

Touche—the hopeful cry of the fencer. Dashing and lunging between easels and canvases, the fencing club can be found any second lunch period, after school or when have you.

The club, now in its third year, brings to its members, fast, hard, keen, and interesting exercise, quite harmless when adequately protected. The group invites new members for instruction or practice. The instructor is usually the most progressive student present during the practice session.

EDWARD GOLDMAN

camera club

This club is as yet in an embryonic state. There has been much interest evidenced in the formation of such a club, and an appropriation of money has been made by the Student Association to finance it. A camera club in an art school is a natural and affiliated organization which should interest a number of students. Let us give this unformed club our active support.
